Thank you very much and a big welcome!!!

All proceeds from the Festival will go towards Lexington Lions Club Community Projects

Here is some additional information.

- 1) The Festival is scheduled to be held on the playing field of Maury River Middle School.
- 2) We will move indoors in the event of bad weather.
- 3) A list of participating
- 4) We will formally begin the Festival with a Parade and Opening Ceremony featuring the massed Pipes & Drums marching with the Clans. Please plan on having at least one representative available.
- 5) A full list of local participating hotels, motels, and bed & breakfasts will be shown on the festival website, www.lexcelts.com.
- 6) There will be a special "Kirkin' o' the Tartans" at Lexington Presbyterian Church on Sunday, April 5th, 2009 at the 11 am service. Since this is also Palm Sunday, everyone is invited to participate in the short, but fun, Palm Sunday Parade in downtown Lexington. All attending Clans are encouraged and requested to participate.
- 7) For further information please contact me, as shown below, or visit the new website, www.lexcelts.com. (Always being updated, please be patient!!!)

Dear Clan/Society Representative,

In April of 2007 we launched a new Festival that we hope can become a fixture here at the head of the beautiful Shenandoah Valley. The earliest colonial settlers here were the Scots Irish, and the immense contributions we as a people have made to this country began here. Having been born and raised in Scotland, and my wife coming from Ireland, we take great pride in celebrating our heritage.

The Lexington Lions Club and the Lexington/Rockbridge County Chamber of Commerce are proud to be again sponsoring this Festival, which continues to receive great praise from attendees, vendors, artists and of course Clans and Societies alike. Our Clan participation is growing and always enthusiastic, and we invite you to add to the fun by having representation at the third Festival on April 4th. We are trying to keep participation fees as low as possible in hopes that you can be there.

We have tried to include as much information as we can with the invitation, and would be happy to answer any other questions you might have.

Please don't hesitate to contact us if we can be of any assistance!!!

Best Regards,
