Go Raibh Maith Agat Agus Failte Mor!!
Thank you very much and a big welcome!!!

All proceeds from the Festival will go towards Lexington Lions Club Community Projects

Here is some additional information.

- 1) The Festival is scheduled to be held on the playing field of Maury River Middle School.
- 2) We will move indoors in the event of bad weather.
- 3) A full list of local participating hotels, motels, and bed & breakfasts will be shown on the festival website, www.lexcelts.com.
- 4) Please supply us with as complete list of what you intend to be offering for sale. As you know, we try to avoid as much product duplication as we possibly can to protect all of the vendors.
- 5) There will be a special "Kirkin' o' the Tartans" at Lexington Presbyterian Church on Sunday, April 5th, 2009 at the 11 am service. Since this is also Palm Sunday, everyone is invited to participated in the short, but fun, Palm Sunday Parade in downtown Lexington. All are encouraged and requested to participate.
- 6) For further information please contact me, as shown below, or visit the new website, www.lexcelts.com. (Always being updated, please be patient!!!)

Dear Vendor,

In April 2007 we launched a new Festival that we hope can become a fixture here at the head of the beautiful Shenandoah Valley. The earliest colonial settlers here at the head of the Valley were the Scots Irish, and the immense contributions that we as a people have made to this country began here. My having been born and raised in Scotland, and my wife coming from Ireland, we take great pride in celebrating our heritage.

The Lexington Lions Club and the Lexington/Rockbridge County Chamber of Commerce are proud to be again sponsoring this Festival, which continues to receive great praise from attendees, vendors, and artists alike. As a vendor at many Festivals ourselves, we have tried to cover as many eventualities as possible. Perhaps most importantly, we will have "Wet weather" back up plans, and will be moving indoors should we experience "Good Scottish weather"!!!!

Now, in order to protect the interests of all of our vendors, we do try and control just how much product duplication we see. Nobody can succeed if everyone is selling the same products. Please police yourselves, and sell only the products you have indicated you're carrying. We are trying to keep participation fees as low as possible in hopes that you can be there. We have tried to include as much information as we can with the invitation, and would be happy to answer any other questions you might have.

Please don't hesitate to contact us if we can be of any assistance!!!

Best Regards,
